Objectives of SSA

91. SHRI JAI PRAKASH AGGARWAL: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the objectives of the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan;

(b) whether these objectives have been achieved;

(c) if not, how much time has lapsed between the target dates and today;

(d) the reasons for failure in achievement of targets;

(e) what percentage of the child population remains out of school on this day;

(f) by when these children would be brought under the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan Programme;

(g) what steps are being taken to accelerate the achievement of targets; and

(h) what percentage of funds is being utilized to achieve these targets?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (e) The goals of the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA) are:

- All children in school, Education Guarantee Centre, Alternate School, 'Back-to-School' camp by 2005.
- Bridge all gender and social category gaps at primary stage by 2007 and at elementary level by 2010.

- Universal retention by 2010.
- Focus on elementary education of satisfactory quality with emphasis on education for life.

Consequent upon implementation of the SSA since 2001-02, a large number of children have been brought in the fold of School Education. The number of out of school children in the country has declined from 320 lakh in 2001-02 to 70 lakh in 2006-07, as per State Reports.

(f) to (h) The SSA is being implemented to achieve the aim of universalisation of elementary education in a time bound manner by 2010.

A rigorous system of monitoring of the Sarva Shiksa Abhiyan has been put in place to obtain feedback on the progress of the programme.

During 2007-08 a B.E. of Rs. 10671 crore has been provided for the SSA programme to further its progress.
